

J. HRTPO CITIZEN TRANSPORTATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE (CTAC): MEMBERSHIP

The HRTPO Citizen Transportation Advisory Committee (CTAC) currently has vacancies for representatives from several Hampton Roads localities. As an advisory committee to the HRTPO Board, the mission of the CTAC is to provide the HRTPO with a citizen's viewpoint on regional transportation issues, strategies, funding, priorities, and the decision-making process of the HRTPO. The HRTPO posted a call for membership applications to the CTAC beginning April 9, 2014 via a notice on the HRTPO website, HRTPO E-Newsletter, and Social Media.

The following individuals have been recommended for CTAC membership:

- City of Hampton – Mr. James Bowie

James Bowie -- Mr. Bowie is a resident of Hampton and works in Virginia Beach as an accountant. He is a past member of Hampton VA Citizen's Unity Commission and a current member of the Hampton VA Road Viewers Board whose mission is to examine locations to determine the expediency of establishing or altering public roads, landings, or bridges at such locations. He is a past board member and current interim Treasurer at Hampton's Church of the Nazarene.

- City of Newport News – Ms. Pamela Jamieson

Pamela Jamieson -- Ms. Jamieson is a resident of Newport News. She is a retired corporate accountant and tax analyst. She was a telephone counselor with the Christian Broadcasting Network for several years and worked on staff at Hampton University as a Director of Housing in the Dean of Women's Office working directly with students. She has also volunteered as Director of Youth Counseling at Bethel Temple in Hampton as a helper in the Grief and Divorce Care Ministry at an Atlanta area Church and as a mentor with Big Brothers/Big Sisters in Stamford, CT.

Recommended Action:

Approve Mr. James Bowie and Ms. Pamela Jamieson to fill the vacancies for the cities of Hampton and Newport News respectively.
