

Sent: Thu 8/14/2014 12:06 PM
By: Camelia Ravanbakht

The following message is sent on behalf of HRTAC Chairman, Mayor Alan Krasnoff.

Pursuant to the bylaws, the Chair and Chairman of the Commonwealth Transportation Board are pleased to announce the following appointments to the Hampton Roads Transportation Accountability Commission's technical advisory committee:

Lynn Allsbrook, city engineer and Hampton's deputy director of public works, for a one-year term.

Clyde Clark, senior vice-president of BB&T, for a one-year term.

Neal Crawford, president of Monarch Bank, chairman for a one-year term.

Helen Dragas, president and chief executive officer of the Dragas Companies, vice-chairman for a two-year term.

Joe Frank, attorney and former mayor of Newport News, Virginia, for a three-year term.

Dr. Jim Koch, economist and past president of Old Dominion University, for a two-year term.

Harry Lester, former president of Eastern Virginia Medical School, for a three-year term.

Jim Long, chief engineer for the Chesapeake Bay Bridge Tunnel, for a two-year term.

Jody Wagner, former secretary of finance and treasurer, Commonwealth of Virginia, for a three-year term.

The technical advisory committee is responsible for recommending funding strategies to build a program of projects identified by the Hampton Roads Transportation Planning Organization and Commission.

Camelia Ravanbakht, PhD

Interim Executive Director

Hampton Roads Transportation Planning Organization

723 Woodlake Drive, Chesapeake, Virginia 23320

cravanbakht@hrtpo.org | www.hrtpo.org | Phone: 757.420.8300 | Fax: 757.523.4881

like us on Facebook

follow us on twitter

All email correspondence to and from this address is subject to the Virginia Freedom of Information Act and to the Virginia Public Records Act, which may result in monitoring and disclosure to third parties, including law enforcement.

Correspondence